International Scientific Conference
on 10th Anniversary of the Malopolska Hospice for Children

Hospice care for children in Poland - achievements, challenges and perspectives

Kraków, May, 10 2016

PROGRAMME

of the International Scientific Conference on 10th Anniversary of the Malopolska Hospice for Children

Hospice care for children in Poland - achievements, challenges and perspectives

Date: May, 10 2016

Place: meeting room in the Municipality of Kraków, Plac Wszystkich Świętych 3/4, Kraków

The Organizer:
The Malopolska Hospice for Children

Co-organizers:
the Institute of Social Work of the Pedagogical University of Cracow Institute of Social Work of the Pedagogical University the Neurology of Children and Young People Department of the Jagiellonian University the Municipality of Krakow

Honorary patronage:
Jacek Majchrowski the President of the City of Krakow Jacek Krupa the Marshall of the Malopolska Province the President of Pedagogical University of Cracow prof. dr hab. Michal Śliwa Dean of the Medical Department of the Jagiellonian University prof. dr hab. med. Tomasz Grodzicki the Polish Society of the Palliative Care Nursery
The Malopolska District Nurses and Midwives Association in Krakow
The National Consultant in palliative medicine Wiesława Pokropska Friends of Children Society; the City Department in Krakow
The Scientific Committee:

Chairmen:
dr hab. prof. UP Norbert G. Pikuła, the Pedagogical University of Cracow dr hab. med. Sławomir Kroczka, the Jagiellonian University of Krakow, the Malopolska Hospice for Children

Members:
prof. dr Valenty Constantinov, The Academy of Sciences of Moldova, Moldova dr hab. prof. dr hab. prof. UP JPII Małgorzata Duda, the Pontifical University of John Paul II in Krakow prof. Iurii Gladusz, PhD, MD, Bogomolets National Medical University, National Children Specialised Clinic Hospital "OHMATDIT" in Kiev, Ukraina dr hab. Leszek Graniszewski University of Warsaw dr hab. prof. Grzegorz Grzybek, the University of Rzeszow prof. dr hab. n. med. the Neurology of Children and Young People Department of the Jagiellonian University prof. dr hab. med. Stanislaw Kwiatkowski, the Neurosurgical Ward of the University Children’s Hospital prof. Olena Meshkova, PhD, MD, Bogomolets National Medical University, National Children Specialised Clinic Hospital "OHMATDIT" in Kiev, Ukraina
dr hab. prof. Barbara Nowak, the Pedagogical University of Cracow dr hab. med. Szymon Skoczeczeń, the Clinical Immunology and Transplantation Department of the Jagiellonian University prof. dr hab. med. Jerzy Sülko, the Orthopedic and Traumatology Ward of the University Children’s Hospital in Kraków

The Organizing Committee:
dr hab. med. Sławomir Kroczka – a chairman lek. med. Krzysztof Nawrocki - the deputy chairman mgr Wojciech Glac – a secretary dr Anna Mirczak - a secretary dr Ewelina Zdebska – a secretary mgr Barbara Maderak-Królik – a interpreters group coordinator

The media patronage:
- TVP3 Kraków
- Dziennik Polski
- Radio Kraków
- Magiczny Kraków
International Scientific Conference
on 10th Anniversary of the Malopolska Hospice for Children

Hospice care for children in Poland - achievements, challenges and perspectives

Kraków, May, 10 2016
DETAILED CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Place: the Municipality of Kraków, Plac Wszystkich Świętych 3/4, Kraków

8.30-9.30 – registration of participants

9.30-10.00 a ceremonial opening of the conference

Opening of the Conference – Anna Nawrocka, president of the Management Board of the Malopolska Hospice for Children

Speeches of the honor patronages

Speech of the Chairman of the Patronage Board of the Malopolska Hospice for Children bp Jan Zając

Speech of the Honor Guest of the Conference, Mr Jens-Joergen Pedersen - a representative of the Velux Foundations

10.00 – 11.30 a plennary session – the meeting room in the Municipality of Krakow

A chairman of the session:

dr hab. prof. UP Norbert G. Pikuła, dr hab. med. Sławomir Kroczyka leks. med. Krzysztof Nawrocki

The Malopolska Hospice for Children

Hospice care for children in Poland. Respite care as an innovative form of support a family with an untreated child

Ks. dr hab. n. teol., lek. med. Lucjan Szczepaniak SCJ

A University Children’s Hospital in Krakow chaplain

A duty of spiritual care for a gravely ill and dying child and its family dr hab. med. Sławomir Kroczyka the Neurology of Children and Young People Department of the Jagiellonian University, Collegium Medicum in Kraków, the Malopolska Hospice for Children

The most frequent neuroperdiatric problems in the hospice care 11.30 – coffee brake

12.00 – start of debates in the theme sessions

12.00 -13.30  I. medical session (the Juliusz Leo conference room)

A chairman of the session:

Aleksandr Klymenko, M.D, Ph. D. Assoc.Prof.
The National Medical Academy of Postgraduate Education in Kiev, Ukraine

Training of medical personnel in the National Medical Academy of Postgraduate Education in the aspect of work with untreatable children

dr med. Marek Bodzioch

The Diagnostic Unit of the Clinical Biochemistry Department, the Medical Faculty of the Jagiellonian University, Collegium Medicum

Meaning of the clinical genetics while taking decisions in the long-term care dr hab. med. Szymon Skoczeń the Clinical Immunology and Transplantation Department, the Clinical Immunology Unit of the Jagiellonian University

Influence of the circumstances of departure of a child on mourning of the family

− 25 years of experience

dr n. med. Grażyna Cepuch, mgr Agnieszka Kruszecka-Krówka International Scientific Conference
on 10th Anniversary of the Malopolska Hospice for Children
Hospice care for children in Poland - achievements, challenges and perspectives
Kraków, May, 10 2016

The Nursery and Midwifery Institute, the Faculty of Health Sciences of the Jagiellonian University, Collegium Medicum in Kraków

Suffering vs dignity of a child - very short discussion

13.30 – lunch and poster session

14.00 -16.00 II. Medical session (the Juliusz Leo conference room)

A chairman of the session:

prof. dr hab. med. Stanisław Kwiatkowski, dr hab. med. Piotr Wojciechowski, dr hab. med. Jerzy Sułko

dr hab. med. Piotr Wojciechowski the Children’s Rescue Medicine Unit, the Clinic and Children’s Surgical Ward of the Jagiellonian University, Collegium Medicum in Kraków

The care of a children surgeon for the hospice children

dr hab. med. Jerzy Sułko

The Orthopedic-Traumatic Unit form the Treatment of Arthrogryposis Center of the University Children’s Hospital in Kraków

The orthopedic aspects of care for disabled children

prof. dr hab. med. Stanisław Kwiatkowski

The Neurosurgery Ward of the University Children’s Hospital in Krakow

Hospice care for neurosurgical children

dr med. Teresa Weber

The University Hospital in Kraków

A feat to talk with a patient about dying Lilliana Klymenko, M.D, Ph. D. Accoc. Prof.
The Family Medicine Department, the Medical University in Kiev

Issues of implementation of family medicine in Ukraine, taking into account cases of care for families with an untreatable child

12.00 – 13.30 I. non-medical session (the meeting room of the Municipality of Krakow)

Chairmen:
dr hab. prof. UP Ireneusz Świtała, dr Dominika Sozańska, mgr Wojciech Glac

dr hab. prof. UP Jolanta Zielińska
the Special Education Institute of the Pedagogical University in Krakow

Activity of the attached to the Pedagogic Faculty UP

□Pro Futuro□ Center for Persons with Special Developmental and Educational Needs with the Use of Modern Technologies

Alexander Wolf, Ph.D.
The National Medical Academy of Postgraduate Education, association of Palliative and Hospice Care, Kiev, Ukraine

Hospice care for children in Ukraine - assessment of needs and challenges

dr Dominika Sozańska
the Institute of Social Work of the Pedagogical University in Krakow

From the Tágetos mountain to hospice care - some sociological comments

dr Joanna Domańska
The Gdańsk School of Banking

Mourning after loss of a close person

dr Ewa Brzędłk
the Special Education Institute of the Pedagogical University in Krakow
An alternative communication - support and facilitation of communication of chronically ill children

mgr Magdalena Przybylińska
The Pedagogy and Psychology Faculty, the Pedagogy Institute of the Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz

Quality of life of children suffering from cancer - an announcement from the research

mgr Iryna Drozd
The University of Rzeszów, the Sociology Institute

Hospice- the last save heaven for untreatable children in Poland and Ukraine

mgr Jerzy N. Grzegorek
The University of Szczecin

The hospice volunteering as a way to the praxis pedagogical animation

dr Katarzyna Ornacka, Instytut Socjologii UJ w Krakowie

mgr Elżbieta Mirewska, the Social Assistance Institute UP in Kraków

About architecture of strengthening the hospice care for a child as a challenge in social assistance

13.30 – lunch and poster session

14.00 -16.00 II. non-medical session (the meeting room of the Municipality of Krakow)

Chairmen:

dr Ewelina Zdebska, mgr Tadeusz Wadas

Mgr Tadeusz Wadas
The Malopolska District Nurses and Midwives Association in Krakow

Vain therapy

mgr Marta Krupska
International Scientific Conference
on 10th Anniversary of the Malopolska Hospice for Children
Hospice care for children in Poland - achievements, challenges and perspectives
Kraków, May, 10 2016

The Pedagogical University of Cracow

Meditation on what love reveals - a conversation with Victor Emanuel Frankl about meaning of suffering and death

dr Sylwester Bęhas

the Institute of Social Work of the Pedagogical University in Krakow

Psychological mechanism of support in mourning and sadness after loss

dr Marzena Florkowska

An author of the biography of Hanna Chrzanowska

Hanna Chrzanowska - a precursor of Polish hospice care

dr Katarzyna Błaszczuk

The Sociology Institute, the Social Policy and Social Assistance Unit, the Sociological and Historical Department of the University of Rzeszów

Familiarizing oneself with suffering and loss in the face of a terminally ill child

dr Iwona Repka

The Nursery and Midwifery Institute of the Jagiellonian University, Collegium Medicum in Kraków

Challenges in palliative care for children and adults in Poland

dr Ilona Kuźmicz

The Jagiellonian University, Collegium Medicum in Kraków

Problems and expectations of families towards hospice care

Martyna Gruszka

the Student Scientific Circle attached to the District Nursing and Promotion of Health Unit, the Health Sciences Faculty, Medical University of Silesia in Katowice

An analysis of knowledge and opinions of nurses about care and perinatal hospice

Poster session International Scientific Conference on 10th Anniversary of the Malopolska Hospice for Children

Hospice care for children in Poland - achievements, challenges and perspectives

Kraków, May 10 2016

www: konferencja.mhd.org.pl  e-mail: konferencja@mhd.org.pl  tel: 609 340 171

www.mhd.org.pl

---

dr n med. Anna Mirczak
Pedagogical University of Cracow, Poland

Role of nurses in home care for patients ventilated mechanically

---

dr Ewelina Zdebska
Pedagogical University of Cracow, Poland

Between a stone and a sponge. About a role of support in hospice care for children in Poland

---

mgr Wojciech Glac Pedagogical University of Cracow, the Malopolska Hospice for Children

The civil law aspects of care for an untreatable child

---

mgr Karolina Kwiatkowska
The Malopolska Hospice for Children

Psychological support on the phone and on the Internet Experience of the Malopolska Hospice for Children in Kraków

---

16.00 – the conclusion and end of the Conference

---

18.30 - a charity concert on the 10th anniversary of foundation of the Malopolska Hospice for Children – Kolysanka dla… (Lullaby for …)

The Kraków Philharmonic, ul. Zwierzyniecka 2 Publishing:
The organizers anticipate publishing of the reviewed scientific publication. We ask you to send the full-text articles in Polish or English, including summaries in both languages as well as summaries of the work qualified for presentation in a form of a poster till non-extendible period of May 20, 2016, when receiving a positive review, they will be published. The editorial requirements are available on: www.10lat.mhd.org.pl

Visit to the Respite Care Center for Chronically Ill and Untreatable Children
The Malopolska Hospice for Children invites to visit first in Poland Respite Care Center for Chronically Ill and Untreatable Children ul. Odmętowa, Kraków – Nowa Huta.

A visit in the Center will be possible on: May 9 or 11, 2016. applications. The organizers provide transport form the center of Krakow to the Respite Care Center and back.

The persons interested in the visit in the Center will get suitable information in a separate message.

Other information and contact:
The detailed information will be put on the website: 10lat.mhd.org.pl

If you have any question, please send them to the organizing committee: konferencja@mhd.org.pl